

Hans-Peter Kraus – age-group 1954

International consultant and management coach, in particular for future scenarios and coaching of the highest leadership level with the focus on integral solutions. In constructive ways and with distinctness he shows, which important role spirituality in management will play in the nearest Future.

Managing Director and Owner of Kraus&&Kraus, Daughters and Friends Entrepreneur – Consultancy, Germany
 Lecturer and Project Manager at Boston Business School and MAB Education Group St. Gallen, Switzerland
 Cooperation with SAFIM Sri Aurobindo Foundation of Integral Management, India

Education

Study of sociology at the Free University of Berlin, with the main topics “Future of Lives and Work” and “Sustainable Organisations and Communities”.

On the job training and trainee in the area of multi media for educational and public events, Los Angeles, USA.

More then 5 years apprenticeship in Coaching with the emphasis of initiating and accompanying development- and change processes.

Over 10 years educational, counselling and coaching work in USA and Europe (Teacher and Counsellor of The Completion Process), Trainings for salesmen , Train the Trainer courses

Training and cooperation with Dr. D. Lynch/USA (bestselling author in the USA and Germany of the books DolphinStrategies, DolphinThinking,), certified. Communispond® Coach (presentation training), BrainLab® Licensee training, Saturn training Facilitator and other vocational stations

General professional experience:

More then 15 years operative in leading position of private enterprises like sales, marketing within the ranges of electronics, software, financial service, conference and seminar services.

Managing director and/or associate of international consulting companies (USA/Europe – Cornucopia Inc., Blue Marble, Hughes International, and Raytheon Human Development).

Own experience as entrepreneur of an Import/Export-Company (Hamburg – Moscow – Bucharest)

Since 1995 own management consulting company Kraus & Kraus, Soelden/Freiburg. Since 2007 Managing Director of Kraus & Kraus, Daughters & Friends and incorporator of MapMakersWorld®, a Future Internet Platform for responsible people who make a major difference in Society and in the World of Business.

Professional experience as coaches/advisors:

Coach/adviser for medium-size and large-scale enterprises, national and international.

Conceptual work and execution of international projects leading position of the Senior consulting teams of considerable management consultation companies.

Educational arrangements (among others Corporate University curriculum),

Creating learning materials, responsible for measures Corporate Culture and Corporate Identity

High-level personnel upward evaluation, mission statement development , moderation of open space meetings, Quality assurance of trainings in international enterprises, out door action learning, Presentation Skills training, coaching of middle and upper management leaders.

Consulting emphasis:

Training: Seminar concepts, roll out of the concept, implementation and execution

Leadership training, development trainings for leaders and teams, Innovation and creativity training

Presentation training for leaders, Train-the-trainer programs

Consulting: Monitoring change processes as change agent human resource development for medium-size and large-scale enterprises. Innovation advisor, Quality assurance of consultations and trainings, High-level personnel upward evaluation, Career/Life consultation (Mentor and Coach)